Scholarship awards are dependent on funds availability and may or may not be available during any specific financial year. The acceptance of this application does not imply award and all decisions will be made by the funding agency and are final.

Funds are provided as reimbursement only for covered expenses and are NOT provided in advance. The applicant agrees to cover all expenses personally, excluding air travel, which will be procured for the participant, and submit receipts for covered expenses upon the meeting's conclusion. Reimbursed funds derive from federal sources and as such all expenses to be reimbursed must comply with the Federal Travel Regulations (FTR). Reimbursed expenses include, but are not limited to, lodging, transportation, and daily federal per diem for meals and incidentals. Funding does NOT reimburse for a participant's time. The participant's application for funding, as well as acceptance of those funds, implies acknowledgment and agreement with all current regulations, which can be found at www.gsa.gov and searching "FTR".
